

MATS Reporting Workshop

St. Louis, Missouri - May 1, 2018

Are You Prepared for the Changes to the MATS Reporting Requirements?

EPA has proposed significant changes to the reporting requirements under EPA's Mercury and Air Toxics Standards (MATS) Rule that will impact all coal- and oil-fired electric utility sources. These changes will affect how you report monitoring data, stack test results, and compliance information regardless of the monitoring or testing options you use. With evolving rule reporting requirements, how can you be sure that you are addressing all the current requirements and making the best choices to address the proposed changes?

RMB is conducting a one-day workshop that will discuss the existing and proposed reporting requirements as well as other MATS issues to help you ensure that you are meeting the current requirements and are ready to address the new requirements. The training topics will include:

- MATS Compliance Report Requirements
- Stack Test & RATA Reporting
- Addressing Compliance Failures/Test Issues
- Documenting Consistency Between Tests
- Mercury Monitoring and Reporting
- Particulate Monitoring and Reporting
- Documenting Boiler Tune-up Results
- Updates on MATS Rule Revisions

The MATS Reporting Workshop will be held at the Pear Tree Inn Union Station on Tuesday, May 1, 2018 (9:00am - 3:30 pm) in conjunction with the EPRI CEMS User Group Meeting, which starts the following day at the nearby St. Louis Union Station Hotel. The cost to attend the MATS Reporting Workshop is $400 and includes a workshop manual, coffee breaks, and lunch. It does not include travel costs or hotel accommodations. Use the following form to register for RMB's MATS Reporting Workshop.

Go to <https://tinyurl.com/EPRICEM18> for more information on hotel accommodations and the EPRI CEMS Users Group Meeting. Please note that the EPRI CEMS User Group Meeting and RMB's MATS Reporting Workshop are separate events.
